Numb. 8545.

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Saturday June 14, to Tuesday June 17, 1746.

Stockholm, May 30.

THE East India Company's Octroy at Gottenburg being expired, a new one was granted a few Days ago by the King and Senate to the same Persons who had the Direction of it before.

Vienna, June 11, N. S. The Detachment of Spaniards who last passed the Po, consisted of 15000 Men. They pillaged Lodi; and from one single Estate of the Borromeis carried off 180 Head of Cattle.

Vienna, June 15, N. S. There is no other News from Italy but that the King of Sardinia is march'd towards the Boguetto, in order to render the Communication of the Spaniards at Placentia with the Genoese State the more difficult, while the Austrians have taken by Storm two Posts, the one called Ripalta upon the Trebia, where there was a Garrison of 700 Men; the other Montechiaro in that Neighbourhood, with a Garrison of 300. Count Podewils, the Prussian Minister, arrived the Night before last.

Berlin, June 18. On Wednesday last the King of Prussia came to Town, and gave Audience to the Foreign Ministers. Count Czernichew was the first, who took Leave of the King, and presented his Letter of Revocation. Afterwards the Danish Minister, M. Cheuses, acquainted his Majesty with his proposed Journey to Holstein for five or six Weeks: He met with a very gracious Reception, and the following Day a present of Tapestry, wrought here, was made to him. Baron Beckers, the Palatin Minister, presented his Credentials from the Elector of Bavaria, whose Affairs he is to manage at this Court with those of his Master. On Thursday Morning his Majesty returned to Potzdam, from whence he is expected here upon the 25th Instant.

Camp at Terhyde, June 24. By our latest Advices, which were of the 17th Instant, the Enemy had not begun to fire upon the Town of Mons, but it was so closely blocked up by Parties all round, that there was great Difficulty of getting any certain Intelligence. Within these few Days above 200 Deserters from the French Army are come in to our Head Quarters, and the Desertion to other Quarters, according to our Accounts, is rather greater. Marshal Bathiani, Prince Waldeck, and almost all the Generals of our Army, went Yesterday to Hoogstraten, and from thence to visit General Baronay's advanced Posts, and were well pleased with his Disposition.

Hague, June 24. It is thought the Austrian Reinforcement will arrive at the Allied Army by the 2d of next Month, and that the Head of it has by this Time passed Cologn. Marshal Saxe continues quiet in the Neighbourhood of Antwerp, whilst the Troops behind him are pushing on the Siege of Mons and St. Ghilain. Letters from Prince Lichtenstein's Army of the 10th Instant bring no material Advices, unless it be of that General's Indisposition, and a Report of the King of Sardinia's advancing to dislodge M. Maillebois from Novi.

Hague, June 25, N. S. An Express is this Minute arrived from Prince Lichtenstein, with the following important News, viz. That upon the 15th Instant, N. S. at Eleven at Night, the combined Army of Spaniards, French, Neapolitans, and Genoese, under the Command of the General Count de Gages, had attacked the Austrian Army before Placentia, and that the Battle lasted with a continual Fire till between Nine and Ten the next Morning, when the Empress's Forces, under the Prince de Lichtenstein, repulsed the Eneny, and obtained a signal Victory. The Number of the Slain on the Part of the Enemy was not yet known, but the Austrians had taken above above thirty Colours and Standards, ten Pieces of Cannon, and above 3000 Priſoners, the greateſt Part of them wounded, and amongſt them ſome Hundreds of Officers, particularly the Generals Aremburg and Wurtz, and ſome Brigadiers. The French Troops and the Spaniſh Guards ſuffer'd moſt. The Loſs of the Auſtrians in Killed and Wounded was computed at near 3000 Men. Amongſt the latter was Lieutenant General Keill, the Colonel of Vettes's Regiment, and ſome other Field Officers. The Colonel of Bernclau's Regiment was killed, and Colonel Budei of the Sclavonians taken. The Courier ſent by Prince Lichtenſtein adds by Word of Mouth, that Marſhal Maillebois had joined General Gages before the Action; and that both his Corps, and all the reſt of the Allied Forces, were ſhut up in and about Placentia; and that they cannot now get off without a ſecond Action, and eſpecially ſince the King of Sardinia was advanced already upon the Day of the Battle as far as St. Giovani, and was expected the Day of the Meſſenger's Departure upon the Trebia.

Whitehall, June 17.

Letters from Edinburgh bring Advice, that the Tranſports with the Heſſian Forces on board were all under ſail with a favourable Wind on Tueſday the 10th Inſtant: And by an Expreſs from Lieutenant General Sinclair at Spithead, we learn, that the Regiments deſign'd for Cape Breton were all on board laſt Sunday, and ready to ſet ſail.

Whitehall, May 30, 1746.

Whereas it hath been humbly repreſented to the King, that on Wedneſday the 14th of May, between the Hours of Eleven and Twelve at Night, John Milles, Eſq; was attacked in David ſtreet, between Groſvenor-ſtreet and Mount-ſtreet, by four Foot-pads armed with Piſtols, one of whom ſtopt the ſaid John Milles's Mouth, another of them held his Hands over his Eyes, whilſt the others holding him faſt, and threatning to murder him if he made the leaſt Noiſe or Reſiſtance, rifled his Pockets, and took from him a Silk Purſe with ſome Guineas in it, a Gold Watch, with a Steel Chain, and two Seals ſet in Gold, beſides ſeveral Keys and other Things: His Majeſty for the better diſcovering and bringing to Juſtice the Perſons concern'd in the ſaid Robbery, is pleaſed to promiſe his moſt gracious Pardon to any of the Offenders who ſhall diſcover his Accomplice or Accomplices, ſo as he, they, or any of them, be apprehended and convicted thereof.

HARRINGTON.

And as a farther Encouragement, the Gentlemen of the Veſtry of the Pariſh of St. George Hanover Square, do hereby promiſe a Reward of Twenty Pounds for ſuch Diſcovery, to be paid on the Conviction of one or more of the Offenders, by Mr. Simon Parry, their Veſtry Clerk, at his Houſe in Conduit Street.

N. B. The other three Fourths will alſo be paid as ſoon as the Claim put in by his Majeſty's Ship Faulkland is decided; of which immediate Notice will be given Notice is hereby given to the Officers and Ship's Company of his Majeſty's Ship the Jerſey, who were on Board at the Time of her taking the Mentor, the Intrepid, the Eſperance, and Maria Thereſa, that they may receive their reſpective Shares of the ſaid Prizes and their Cargoes, on Wedneſday the 25th Inſtant, at the Sign of the Three Tuns in Crutched Fryars, London: And the Shares of thoſe that ſhall not then be demanded, will be paid the ſecond Thurſday in every Month for three Years, at the Houſe of John Reynolds, oppoſite the Pay-Office in Broad-ſtreet, London.
